

MPMA Publication Design Competition

The Publication Design Competition recognizes outstanding publication design by MPMA member institutions. This is a juried competition with a minimum of three judges. Judges are graphic designers within the MPMA region. No one having a personal or professional association with an entry may serve on a jury judging that category.

Entry Categories:

- Books and exhibition catalogs
- Brochures and rack cards
- Development or promotional package
- Magazines, newsletters, quarterly or biannual publications

Budget Levels:

Entries are judged in two budget levels.

Operating under $250,000 & Operating budget $250,000 and over

Please note this is institutional operating budget not the budget of the department that developed the entry.

Entry Rules:

- Competition is open only to MPMA institutional members.
- Institutions may submit their institutional membership along with their entry.
- Competition pieces must have been published between June 30, 2010 and July 1, 2011.
- An institution may submit multiple entries.
- Each entry requires a $15 entry fee payable to MPMA
- A complete entry form must be submitted with each entry.

Entry Forms & Submittals:

Entry forms and entry fee payment information can be found on the MPMA website at www.mpma.net. All competition materials are to be sent to Kathy Dickson, MPMA Awards Chair at Oklahoma Historical Society, 800 Nazih Zuhdi Drive, Oklahoma City, OK 73105. A completed entry form must accompany each entry.

Entry Deadline:

Entries must be postmarked no later than July 1, 2011.

Questions?

Contact Kathy Dickson, MPMA Awards Chair at 405-522-5231 (kdickson@okhistory.org) or Monta Lee Dakin, MPMA Executive Director at 303-979-9358 (info@mpma.net)